

Your Name:

Late Filing Consideration

Application ID:

Victim's Name (if different than above):
Infortunately, Government Code section 13953 states that an application for compensation must be filed within seven years of: the date of the crime, after the victim turns 21, or the victim had easonable knowledge of the crime.
While the law stipulates that applications should be filed within this timeframe, it also allows for CalVCB to review and consider applications that are submitted late. The information you provide will help us determine if we may accept your application for demonstrated good cause. Please complete and return this form and any supporting documentation or crime-related bills to the address below:
CalVCB, P.O. Box 3036, Sacramento, CA 95812
Did you testify during the prosecution or punishment of the person accused or convicted of the crime resulting in emotional harm or a crime-related expense?
☐ Yes ☐ No
Please provide a detailed explanation:
Did you incur emotional harm or any crime-related expenses because the person convicted of the crime for which you are filing is scheduled for a parole hearing or is released from incarceration? Yes No
Please provide a detailed explanation:
r lease provide a detailed explanation.
If the questions above do not apply, please explain the reason you were unable to apply for compensation within the filing period:
fabra abassa information manabasa dha baba filin miansa fan sasan manabasa dha anima ainssunadan an
the above information resolves the late filing issue for your application, the crime circumstances will be reviewed to determine if your application meets the eligibility criteria for CalVCB benefits.
Please sign and date the statement below:
declare under penalty of perjury (Penal Code, Section 72), that I have read all of the above uestions and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all of my answers are true, correct and omplete.
Signature:Date:
Printed Name:
f you have any questions, please call our Customer Service Unit toll-free at 1-800-777-9229.

