Section 13 My Agreement to the California Victim Compensation Board

As required by California law, I will contact and repay the California Victim Compensation Board (CalVCB) if I, or anyone on my behalf, receives any payments from the offender, a civil lawsuit, an insurance policy, or any other government or private entity, for losses suffered as a direct result of the crime that was the basis for receipt of benefits from CalVCB, in the amount of the total benefits granted by the Board. I understand I may be responsible for repaying CalVCB any amount for which it is later determined that I was not eligible. I will notify CalVCB if I hire an attorney to represent me in any action related to this crime or if I pursue any action on my own.

Any monies I receive from CalVCB for moving/relocation expenses, improving home security, or for modifying a home or vehicle for a disabled victim will be used only for those purposes. If I am a victim of domestic violence receiving moving/relocation expenses, I will not tell the offender my home address nor allow the offender on the premises at any time, or I will seek a restraining order against the offender.

In the event that I am compensated for any pecuniary loss by the California Victim Compensation Board and the State of California subsequently receives compensation for the same loss on my behalf from the perpetrator (including any monies received through a restitution order) or from any other source, I hereby assign to the Victim Compensation Board any and all rights to such duplicate compensation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that all the information I have provided is true, correct and completed to the best of my knowledge and belief.
