

LATE FILING CONSIDERATION

VCB-31-10024a (Rev. 12/2025)

Your Name: _____ Application ID: _____

Victim's Name (if different from above): _____

By law, a CalVCB application should be filed within:

- Seven years of the crime, or
- Seven years after the direct victim turns 21 years of age, or
- Seven years from when the victim or derivative victim discovered the crime.

The law does allow CalVCB to review and consider applications that are submitted late. Use the space below to tell us why you are submitting a late application. The information you provide will help us determine if we may accept your late application.

Complete and return this form within 30 days of the date of the letter. We encourage you to include any supporting documentation or crime-related bills and send them to: CalVCB, P.O. Box 3036, Sacramento, CA 95812

You may check one of the options below if they apply. You must also provide a detailed written explanation.

- ☐ I recently testified in court about the crime I am applying for, and it caused emotional harm or crime-related expenses.
- ☐ The person who was found guilty of the crime committed against me is scheduled for a parole hearing or is being released from prison, and it caused emotional harm or crime-related expenses.
- ☐ I just learned of the crime committed against me.
- ☐ Other

Please explain in detail the reason why you are filing a late application and did not apply for compensation within the seven-year filing period. Include relevant dates.

CalVCB will review the information above to decide if your late application can move forward for processing. If it can move forward, then the crime details will be reviewed to decide if your application can be approved.

Please sign and date the statement below:

I declare under penalty of perjury (Penal Code, Section 72), that I have read all of the above questions and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all of my answers are true, correct and complete.
